

MSc Environmental Transition and Energy Management (CGE)

The MSc in Environmental Transition and Energy Management prepares future engineers and sustainability professionals to address global environmental and energy challenges. Through scientific, technical, and managerial training, students gain the skills to design innovative solutions and lead sustainable projects in an international context.

4 reasons to choose this MSc

SPECIALIZED EXPERTISE

Technical and managerial skills in energy and sustainability.

INTERNATIONAL ENVIRONMENT

Fully taught in English, on a multicultural campus.

CAREER ORIENTED

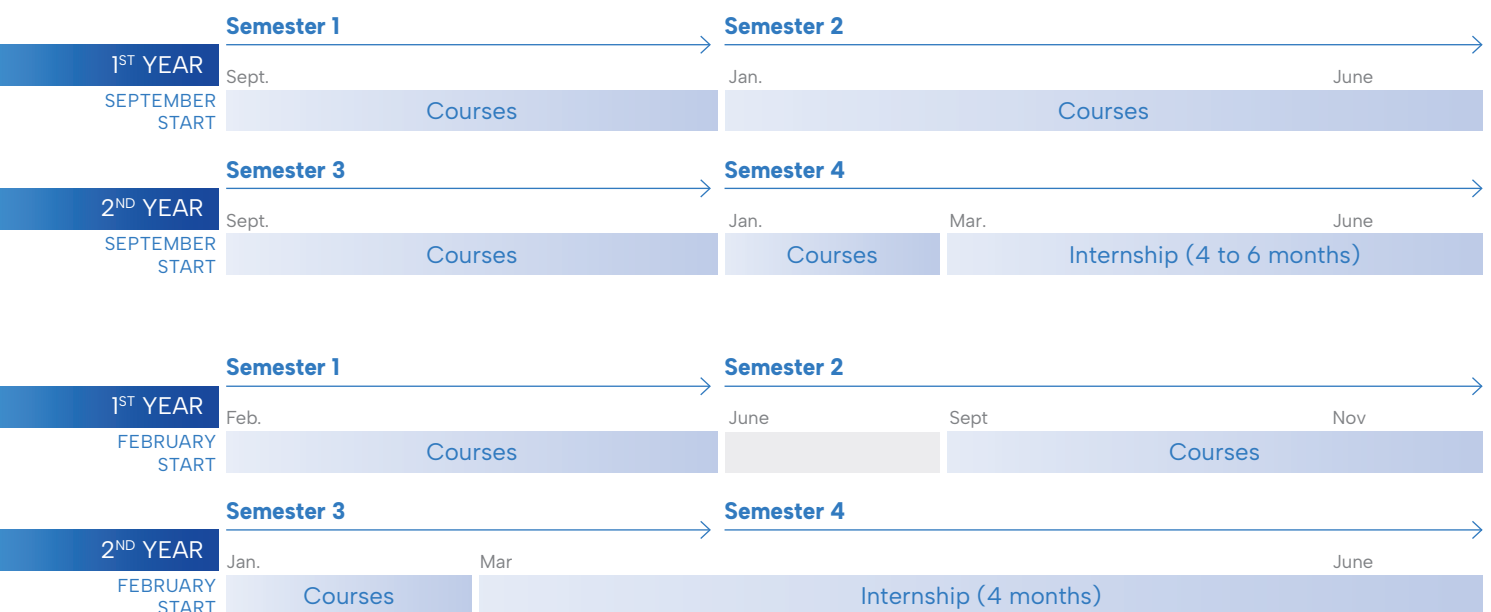

95% average employment rate among ESAIP's recent graduates.

REAL WORK EXPERIENCE

4 to 6 months of company internship over two years.

Overview of the program

Course highlights include...

FIRST YEAR

- Heat transfer
- Environmental and pollution sciences
- Basics of circular economy
- Introduction to business environments
- Solar energy
- Environmental risks management

SECOND YEAR

- Applied project and site visits
- Ecoconception and circular economy
- Tools for internship preparation
- Energy consumption monitoring
- Energy audit
- International energy policies

Career opportunities

→ Energy consultant

→ Energy transition manager

→ Energy efficiency engineer

→ Environmental project manager

→ Sustainable development project manager

→ Corporate social responsibility (CSR) manager

→ Renewable energy project manager

→ Environmental compliance officer

→ Energy policy analyst

→ Sustainability consultant

Admissions and Tuition Fees

→ International students : admission takes place on the ESAIP website, followed by a review of the application file.

TUITION FEES

€9 000*/year

Come discover our campus:

Open Days,
Immersion Days,
Job fairs...

2027-2028 academic year fees are provided for informational purposes only and are subject to change each year.*

Conception : welko.fr – Impression : Exaprint – Photos : EXCELIA, DR – 09/2026 – Document non contractuel.
La Direction se réserve le droit de modifier les enseignements, dates et tarifs des formations.

ESAIP
ENGINEERING
SCHOOL

INNOVATE
WITH AMBITION
ACT WITH PURPOSE

admissions@esaip.org

esaip.org

